—Sir Winston Churchill, English statesman

"Example is by far the most effective form of persuasion."
—Albert Schweitzer, Biblical scholar, theologian, missionary, Nobel laureate

"The motive of a Christian life is gratitude to God and the joy of following Christ in service to our neighbor."
--Martin Luther in "Freedom of a Christian"

—John Wesley

"The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work." —2 Corinthians 9:6-8
